FUNDING

“Arts, history, and culture help us understand who we are as Iowans and what makes this state such an incredible place to live and work. Arts and culture are the foundation for the creative economy, which employs more than 25,000 Iowans in 5,000 arts-related businesses. Arts and culture inspire the workforce to think creatively and imagine new solutions to compete in our ever-changing global economy.”

—Governor Kim Reynolds, Dec. 14, 2018

THE ARTS ARE EVERYWHERE!

- Beginning in far Eastern Iowa in Davenport, visit Daytrotter Studio where over 7,000 live sessions with local and national bands have been recorded, comprising the world’s largest vault of live-music recordings.
- Head west on I-80 to Iowa City, the only UNESCO City of Literature in the United States, and home to the famous International Writers Program and the Iowa Writers’ Workshop.
- Drive north on Hwy-218 to Mason City and experience Meredith Wilson’s River City by taking a stroll down the recreated Main Street in Music Man Square.
- South on I-35, stop by Iowa’s largest mural painted on all sides of a 110-ft grain silo along the river in Fort Dodge.
- From one large public art piece to another, travel southwest to the small town of Manning and take your picture in front of the giant IOWA sculpture in Trestle Park.
- The journey ends to the south in Malvern where visitors can stay in the Art Church, an 1873 Presbyterian Church transformed by artist Zack Jones into an event space and Airbnb.
